

Panchak:

Panchak means group of 'Five' (Panch).

In every month, it is period of five days when Moon transits from Aquarius & Meen rashis respectively.

Dhanishtha (Last two parts), Shatbhisha, Purvabhadrapada, Utrabhadrapada and Revati are five Nakshatras principally four and a half Nakshatras are known as a Panchak.

In other words the duration of placement of Moon in Aquarius or Pisces is known as Panchak.

It is also called Dhanishtha Panchak.

According to some people the person who is born in Dhanishtha Nakshatra of Panchak may be physically challenged.

In some places, the first half of Dhanishtha Nakshatra is considered inauspicious.

Five Prohibited Tasks during Panchak

There are five tasks which are prohibited to perform during Panchak. Traveling in south direction, restoring fuel, funeral of body, building house and making bed are not considered auspicious to do during Panchak.

According to Astrology if you perform any task during these Nakshatras you may have to repeat it for five times.